

No auction is planned in the north in the near future, but we expect to be arranging one in the new year.